LAD A TAX OF MILLIONS

Union Ticket was Elected by an Overwhelming Majority Fifty Years Ago—Appeal for Shirts in Addition to State Supply, for the Volunteers.

Fifty years ago this week, at the annual town meeting, which was held in the afternoon at the closed, a tax of four mills was laid. Because of the war and the absence of many men, the idea of having a union ticket and giving up political strife at home was carried out by the greater part of the citizens. There was an opposition ticket, however, but it secured but about 175 votes in the whole town to the union ticket of 700.
Newell Brockbridge was made first selectman that year and at the annual meeting among the officials chosen by acclamation was T. Y. Winslip, who now of East Great Plain, who was made a gauger, and also one of the sealers of weights and measures.

The assembling of the troops at Hartford was continued during the week and the need of more shirts was pointed out to the people and an appel made that the people of Norwich furnish them.

The change in the terminal of the Norwich line boats from Allyn's Point to New London took place during the week and it was accompanied by a big celebration in that city.
The following are items taken from the Bulletin of 1861 during the week corresponding with the past week:
Acting Paymaster Aiken.
October 3, 1861—William A. Aiken, son-in-law of Governor Buckingham, is acting paymaster of the steamer Curlew, which sailed from Boston to Annapolis for the Potomac, with sealed orders.

Two companies of the Eleventh regiment are in barracks at Hartford; those of Captain Southmayd of Danbury and Captain Daniels of Norwich.
The Eleventh regiment, which was ordered to proceed to Washington probably the last of this week.
Sergeant Austin G. Munroe, one of Captain Chester's company, writes home from a prison in Richmond: "I was taken prisoner on June 12 at Falls Church, Va., and have been in the pickets that day and was two miles from camp at the time I was taken by a troop of cavalry. Corporal Hawthorn was with me and we were taken the same time. We are in a hall about the size of Uncas hall, a nice, large, airy room, and we have a good cot to sleep on and plenty to eat. I can say that we are treated with as much respect as we were in our own camp, but of course we are prisoners of war."

City of Boston Leaves the Point.
Oct. 3, 1861—Warrington D. Roath of Preston, who was a member of the Maine company, has been appointed acting master in the navy.
The steamer City of Boston left here yesterday with officers of the new army and went to Allyn's Point.
There was served just such a dinner as Mr. Byrnes knows well how to cook. The ship was under way and the lines at the Point were cast off, and the Boston took her final departure from the Point, the terminal of the line having been changed to New London, where a big time was made over the change. John T. Wait responded to the address of welcome there.

CRIMINAL SUPERIOR COURT
Extra Mather Sent to Jail for a Year
—Taken from Probation List.
On Friday at a continued session of the criminal superior court in New London, Extra Mather was sentenced to Judge Reed to be in jail a year and Mather has been on probation and Friday the order of probation was revoked.

Mather is a young fellow whose chief fault seems to be lack of ambition to be anything at all. Because of his shiftness and his tendency to the vagrant life, the people of Old Lyme have placed Mather on the list of undesirable citizens and all infractions of the law have been laid at his door. If a window was broken or stone wall overturned, anything stolen or a loud voice made after curfew, Mather was turned to as the guilty one.

About a year ago he was arrested and presented before the superior court on the charge of stealing a horse. It was represented to the court by Attorney Barnes that Mather did not steal the horse, but had simply borrowed it without the consent of the owner. The complaint was changed to borrowing horse without consent of owner. Judge Reed gave Mather one year in jail and then suspended sentence and placed Mather in the care of County Probation Officer Mansfield.

Mather has not been an ideal prob-ationer. He was secured a position at Lake's pond in Carr's lumber mill.
He left there without permission of the probation officer and returned to his old haunts in Old Lyme, which seem to have a strange lure for him.
When he was sought by Officer Mansfield and told to return to New London, Mr. Mansfield placed Mather in the Y. M. C. A. bowling alleys, but he went away unannounced after working a day.

Recently a writimus was secured for Mather and Mather was compelled to get the man and bring him into court.
Thursday night Selectman Griswold and Constable Smith went to Mather's house and there found him in bed.
State Attorney Hull explained to Judge Reed that Mather had been a refractory probationer, but that he was inclined to the vagrant life, and that he was feared by the law abiding townspeople in Old Lyme.

Attorney Barnes for his client said that Mather, as far as he knew, had committed no crime other than to go back to Old Lyme three times. He would not object to revoking the probation order and sending Mather to jail, if anyone would state that Mather was guilty of a crime. He would wise he would favor giving Mather another chance.

State Attorney Hull stated that, if he wished to press the case, he had a crime against a young woman of Old Lyme charged up against Mather.
"If he prefers a state prison sentence to going to jail, the town can accommodate him." Mr. Hull said that he did not think Mather over strong mentally.
Probation Officer Mansfield stated that Mather had disobeyed him habitually. Judge Reed then ordered the suspension order revoked and directed that Mather serve the sentence of a year in jail.
A claim for a reward for the arrest of poultry thieves was made in the case of the state vs. Fitch, but it was withdrawn when State Attorney Hull said he would oppose it, as the claimant only arrested a man after he was told to.

Elizabeth B. Woodhull fund. 2,800.00 Martha P. Foster fund. 1,940.00 $22,840.00

Annual Receipts.
The year's receipts, including an appropriation of $4,500 from the town of Norwich, amounted to $22,840.51. Of this amount, $2,862 came from invested funds.

Principal Disbursements.
The total expenditures amounted to $2,168.33, there remaining on hand a balance of $20,672.18.
The principal items of expense were:
Salaries, $2,577; books, $1,920.22, including new books, $1,438.07; periodicals, $227.77; and binding, $234.45.
The sum of $750 was paid on indebtedness.

Librarian's Report.
Jonathan Trumbull, the librarian, gives a tabulated statement of the record of books issued for home use during the year, the total number of volumes reaching the astounding figure of 109,036. This serves to show how intimately the Otis library is concerned in the culture, comfort and entertainment of Norwich home life and gives an idea of the broad educational work which it is doing, and the many hours of advice and instruction which books from its shelves have provided for thousands whose individual means in most cases would not permit them the purchase of even a few books during a twelvemonth.

Circulation in Detail.
The distribution of book issues was:
Fiction for grown people, 66,275 volumes, 66 per cent; biography, 1,132 volumes, 1.24 per cent; travel, geography, etc., 1,149 volumes, 1.05 per cent; history, 1,116 volumes, 1.02 per cent; reference, 2,298 volumes, 2.02 per cent; fine arts, 1,055 volumes, .97 per cent; useful arts, 1,533 volumes, .95 per cent; theology, 1,008 volumes, .91 per cent; philology, 55 volumes, .51 per cent; sociology, 1,008 volumes, .91 per cent; religion, 577 volumes, .53 per cent; philosophy, 38 volumes, .35 per cent; magazines and miscellany, 3,270 volumes, 3.00 per cent; fiction for young people, 16,351 volumes, 14.99 per cent; other books for young people, 5,543 volumes, 5.08 per cent; books in foreign languages, 1,745 volumes, 1.60 per cent.

Interesting Data.
Daily average of issues, 359 volumes; library open, 304 days; reading room open, 245 days; new book borrowers registered during the year, 1,928; total registration since June 1, 1893, 22,952; new books added by gift, 128, by state grant, 49; books purchased, 1,534; total, 1,811; total number of volumes in the library, 39,577; net gain in volumes, 134; number of visitors in the reading room, 1,126; number of books issued, 2,268; cards added to the catalogue, 2,391; number of cards now in catalogue, 30,965.

Shelves Overcrowded.
The librarian says
It is hoped that the removal of the 1,657 volumes which have been disposed of during the year will make room for the accession of new books during the coming year, since many of the books removed are of unusual size.
The need for more room, however, will continue to confront us annually or often until additional new shelving is provided.

Tribute to Louis J. Hoss.
During the year death has removed from the staff of the library, Louis J.
Hoss, regarding which removal a record has been adopted by the board of trustees, paying tribute to his faithfulness, ability and exemplary character.
The vacancy caused by Mr. Hoss' death has been filled by the appointment of Miss Martha A. Ward, assistant at the delivery desk and Hugh H.
Moreland, janitor.

Constant Aid to Students.
The demand upon the library by licensed debating clubs and special students continues to grow. The grammar schools and Free Academy also make frequent demands on the library for books and material in connection with studies in the various classes. Among the few books which show an increased issue during the year, these on useful arts may be mentioned.

Trustees and Staff.
The trustees of the library include:
William A. Aiken, president; John C.
Ayer, treasurer; James H. Carroll, Frank L. Woodward, Henry A. Tirrell, Oliver L. Johnson, Archibald Mitchell.
Library staff: Jonathan Trumbull, librarian and secretary; assistants, Miss Imogene A. Cash, Miss Harriet G.
Crosby, Miss Elizabeth Weiden, Miss Martha A. Ward, assistant at the delivery desk, and Miss Nellie B. Rogers, Miss L. S. Vanderwaart.

HAVE YOU TRIED PAXTINE
The Great Toilet Germicide?
You don't have to pay 50c or $1.00 a pint for listerian antiseptic or per-more cleansing, germicidal, healing and deodorizing antiseptic solution with one 25c box of Paxtine—a soluany drug store.

Paxtine destroys germs that cause disease, decay and odors—that is why it is the best mouth wash and gar-
